NEWS FLASH

Beaufort Tech will initiate a program of Artist-in-Residence during the 1974-1975 school year.

Performing musicians, craftsmen, visual artists, dramatists, and dancers will be available through this program. The artist will live in Beaufort County and will be available to perform at civic and community functions. The instruments which have been preferred in past years by other schools who offered this program include guitar, piano, harp, and harpsichord.

The artist will perform a wide-range of functions which include: lecture demonstrations, concerts, discussion, previews of upcoming shows or concerts, performing as soloist with school and community musical organizations, etc.

Mr. Francis Perry, classical guitarist will visit with us on Friday, March 22, 1974 for the purpose of applying for a position starting next school year.

He will give a performance in Mrs. Bunch's classroom, 110, at 10:30 a.m.; again in Mr. Smith's classroom, 101, at 11:00 a.m., and finally in the Library at 11:30 a.m. We hope all of you will be able to hear Mr. Perry's performance.
